

Hello Guid Freen

Happy New Year!

At the end of this month, we will be celebrating Burns Night.

Burns Night celebrates the Scottish poet, Robert Burns. He's often called Rabbie.

During the late 1700s, he was as famous in Belfast as he was in Scotland. His poems were sought after, read, memorised and recited by many in the Ulster-Scots community.

We celebrate his poems on his birthday every year; 25th January.

Why not explore some of the Robert Burns resources linked in this email and share this creative literary part of Ulster-Scots Cultural Heritage in your classroom?

BBC Bitesize has animated Up in the Morning Early by Robert Burns, perfect to introduce primary school pupils to Robert's poems.

"... the birds sit chittering in the thorn..."

Find out more about Robert's life & Burn's Night by watching the videos linked below.

Robert Burns

The Story of Robert Burns

What is Burns Night

More Resources

Belfast's Bonnie Burns | Discover Ulster-Scots

Burns Night - Twinkl

Burns Night 2025 resources - BBC Teach

The Selkirk Grace and the 'Address to a Haggis'

are always read at Burns Night. Why not create your own Burns Celebration in class and listen to Matthew read the grace. You can find Address to a Haggis here.

Check out the podcast Burns Banter - A Fresh Look at Burns from Alistar Turnbull as he chats about Rabbie's poems and share some stories about him. He has translated the poems into modern English to make them easier to understand. The Address to a Haggis episode gives a great insight into this famous Burns Supper traditions and poem!

Burns Celebrations near you

Burns Night Suppers Ulster Folk Museum, Kilkeel

Robert Burns Festival

Bready Ulster-Scots Centre, Strabane

Check out these You-tube channels and our Discover Ulster-Scots website for many more resources.

○ Discover Ulster-Scots ○ Ulster-Scots Community Network

Can't find exactly what you're looking for? Send me a message and I'll do my best to help.

Taak soon

Shirlie

Education Officer Ulster-Scots Agency

You are receiving this newsletter as you have previously engaged with the Education Team at the Ulster-Scots Agency. If you do not wish to receive further newsletters, please reply to this email and we will remove you from the mailing list.